The Contemporary Pacific: A Journal of Island Affairs

ISSN: 1043-898X
E-ISSN: 1527-9464
Frequency: Semiannual

With editorial offices at the Center for Pacific Islands Studies, The Contemporary Pacific covers a wide range of disciplines with the aim of providing comprehensive coverage of contemporary developments in the entire Pacific Islands region and the global Pacific diaspora. It features refereed, readable articles that examine social, economic, political, ecological, literary, and cultural topics, along with political reviews, book and media reviews, resource reviews, and a dialogue section with interviews and short essays. Each issue highlights the work of one or more Pacific Islander artists.

Submission Guidelines

The Contemporary Pacific welcomes scholarly articles on contemporary issues of concern in the Pacific Islands. Articles on such issues as urbanization, culture change, decolonization, dependency, and social and health problems are sought, along with articles addressing such topics as cultural movements, ethnic relations, contemporary history, regional cooperation, migration, population pressure, protection of the environment, and strategic and security concerns. Articles relating to earlier periods in Pacific Islands history, on other regions, or of a more theoretical nature, will be considered if they help to illuminate contemporary issues and concerns within the region. All articles published in the journal are refereed. The Editorial Board encourages articles that draw on the literature of more than one discipline.

Submissions must be original works not previously published and not under consideration or scheduled for publication by another publisher. Manuscripts should be 8,000 to 10,000 words, or no more than 40 double-spaced pages, including references. Editorial style follows the 15th edition of The Chicago Manual of Style (Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 2003), as implemented in current issues of The Contemporary Pacific. Spelling follows Merriam Webster's Collegiate Dictionary (11th ed, 2003).
Follow these instructions and consult the UH Press Journals Department Publishing Guidelines at www.uhpress.hawaii.edu/journals/author-guidelines.

Manuscripts may be submitted electronically as e-mail attachments. A printed copy is required if there are unusual diacritical marks. Margins should be 1 inch on all sides. Article submissions and editorial correspondence should be addressed to:

Newspaper or magazine articles without authors can be cited thus:
Full titles and other publication details (place and frequency of publication) are given in the reference list. See also References.

Cover Sheet Include with your submission a cover sheet giving the title of your paper and your name, affiliation, and address, telephone and fax numbers, and e-mail address. Note any expected changes of contact information, with dates. To facilitate the peer-review process, include the title of the paper, but not your name, on the first page of text.

Dates and Time 14 May 1970. Subsequently, on the fifteenth . . . 1960–1970, 1960s, the sixties (not ’60s), 1980–81 (fiscal or non-calendar year) 3500 BC  AD 1350  4:30 PM  seven o’clock

Electronic Manuscript Submit manuscript as a Word document. Do not include extraneous preformatted “styles”; use “Normal” style throughout, and indent paragraphs manually using the tab key.

Illustrations and Photographs Digital images should not be embedded in text, but should be submitted as separate, high-resolution TIFF, EPS, or JPEG files. Maximum final print size 4.75 x 7 inches. Consult the section on images in the UH Press Journals Department Author Publishing Guidelines (see www.uhpress.hawaii.edu/journals/author-guidelines). Indicate approximate placement in text with a callout at the end of the related paragraph, eg “<figure 1 about here>.” Submit a separate, double-spaced document listing all map, figure, and photo captions. See also Maps.

Manuscript Preparation Submit a U.S. Letter document (not A4). Allow 1-inch margins on all sides. Double-space everything, including references and notes (if any). Use just one font and type size throughout (12 pt Times New Roman preferred). Do NOT justify the right margin or use underlining. Number all pages. Each paper must include a reference list, an abstract, and keywords in addition to text. A few high-quality illustrations (with brief credits) are encouraged. See also Cover Sheet, Electronic Manuscript, Submissions.

Maps Make sure maps contain all important place-names mentioned in text, with current, consistent spelling. Submit maps as separate graphics files, not embedded in text, and indicate approximate placement in text with a callout, for example, “<map 1 about here>.”

Measurements Use metric units. US equivalents may be given in parentheses. Spell out units of measure in text: 10 hectares (25 acres); 35 kilometers (22 miles). See also Numbers.
Money  Always specify the currency. For units other than American dollars, provide US equivalents if practicable. Note that the type of currency precedes the symbol: A$400 (US$300) £250 (US$500) F$7 million SI$1,000 $12–15 million

Non-English Words  Unless advised otherwise, the journal will not use italics for non-English words. But if authors prefer to use italics their wishes will be respected. Glosses, whether in English or another language, appear in parentheses rather than in quotation marks: mai (come); cannibals (liet).

Notes  must be kept to a minimum, preferably none. Incorporate in text if possible, or drop. Type as endnotes (not footnotes), double-spaced, following text and preceding reference list.

Numbers  Spell out numerals under 101 (except when comparing with larger numbers), isolated large round numbers, and inexact sums of money. Where many numbers occur in a paragraph, all are arabic. Use comma with four or more digits.

10 percent 4,123 7°N (latitude)
about four thousand years two hundred canoes nearly six million dollars

Permissions  The author is responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce lengthy quoted material or illustrations. Copies of permission letters will be required prior to publication. In case of difficulty, contact the managing editor.

Publication Agreement  UH Press requires a signed publication agreement from each contributor. If the signed publication agreement is not received by press time, the item will be dropped.

Punctuation  Use serial comma: Polynesia, Melanesia, and Micronesia
Use double quotation marks around quotations shorter than one hundred words; place punctuation (except semicolon) inside closing double quotation marks. See also Citations and References.

Quotations  Lengthy quotations of more than one hundred words, or quotations of two or more paragraphs, will be set as indented, block quotes. Place shorter quotations in double quotation marks and run in with text. Spelling and punctuation in quotations must be copied exactly from the original. Include page numbers in citations accompanying quotations: (Davidson 1970, 21). Type quotations in the same font size and format as the rest of the document.
References Reference lists must include every work cited; items not cited should not be listed. Arrange references in a single, double-spaced list, alphabetized by last name of first author of each work. Invert name of first author only. Copy full publication details from title page of each work cited, setting out and punctuating as in examples on next page. Consult a recent issue of the journal or the Chicago Manual of Style for additional examples.

Spelling Follow first preference in Merriam Webster’s Collegiate Dictionary (11th ed, 2003). Retain variations (eg, British spelling) in titles of works in references, and in proper nouns.

Submissions Submissions must be original works not previously published and not under consideration or scheduled for publication by another publisher. Submit one electronic copy as an e-mail attachment or on disk; a printed copy may be required if text includes unusual diacritics. For further information about submissions, contact the journal editor, Alexander Mawyer, Center for Pacific Islands Studies, University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa, 1890 East-West Road, Moore Hall 210, Honolulu, Hawai‘i 96822; fax (808) 956-7053; e-mail uhtcp@hawaii.edu. Works by same author are arranged chronologically, beginning with earliest. Multiple works by same author jointly with others are arranged alphabetically by last name of first author, then second or later authors, regardless of number of authors. List ALL joint authors; same for editors and joint editors. Works edited by same person follow works authored. Order works published in same year by same author(s) alphabetically by title and distinguish with letters a, b, etc. If author is unknown, do not use Anonymous; use name of organization or title of work instead.
